PPIS welcomes the appointment of Minister Masagos Zulkifli as the Minister-in-charge of Muslim Affairs.

As the pioneering Muslim women organisation, PPIS often collaborates with other Muslim organisations as well as women organisations in various initiatives for the advancement of the Muslim community, especially women.

PPIS has always maintained a close working relationship with MUIS and other Muslim organisations in Singapore. We look forward to the guidance of Minister Masagos in our joint efforts toward the betterment of the community.
