Give the Gift of Ramadan with PPIS and Hungryy

Friday, 1 April 2022. For the second consecutive year, the Singapore Muslim Women’s Association (PPIS) is partnering with Hungryy Services (Hungryy) for the ‘Gift of Ramadan’ initiative. This year, Hungryy aims to reach out to 3,000 beneficiaries from PPIS and Muhammadiyah Welfare Home.

Through the Hungryy app, users can choose to either gift an iftar i.e. breaking of fast (‘Food for iftar/Charity’) meal or alternatively, a grocery package (‘Grocery for Charity’) to low-income and vulnerable families. Each package can feed a family of two to six persons, and costs between $50 to $105 (depending on the selected packages), and inclusive of islandwide delivery. SuzyAmeer is partnering with Hungryy to provide the groceries for the ‘Grocery for Charity packages.’ For every charity package purchased, KedaiSujimy.com will also be gifting 1kg of dates to the beneficiaries.

The month of Ramadan is a month of giving and charity especially to those in greater need, and at PPIS, we hope to extend this spirit of care and compassion to all, regardless of race or creed. Hence, this year, we are taking the opportunity to extend the ‘Gift of Ramadan’ to our non-Malay/Muslim clients and beneficiaries.

Mdm Tuminah Sapawi, Chief Executive Officer of PPIS said, “PPIS welcomes such efforts from the community in galvanising collective action towards a common good, especially towards uplifting our beneficiaries. As a social service organisation, serving the community lies at the heart of our organisation, and we hope to extend some added warmth to vulnerable segments within our community during this blessed Ramadan.

Mr Muhammad Zulkifli Bin Rahmat, Director of Hungryy said, “This is the second year we are collaborating with PPIS, and we are pleased to be given yet another opportunity to help those less fortunate. This year ‘Gift of Ramadan’ is different from last year. Now ‘Gift of Ramadan’ will deliver not only iftar but also groceries. As Muslims, we believe if we are blessed with more, we should share with others who need it more. At Hungryy, we are confident that our app users will once again show strong support for this campaign.”

The ‘Gift of Ramadan’ started on Monday, 28 March 2022, and food deliveries will be carried out from Saturday, 2 April till Friday 29 April 2022. For more details on the ‘Gift of Ramadan’, click here.
